English

This week, we began our new topic of 'Traditional Tales.' We looked at different traditional tales and what their particular characteristics are that make them a traditional tale. We used role play to retell The Three Billy Goats Gruff and then thought of our own version of this story using different characters.

Maths

We have been learning primarily about recognising representations of the symbols greater than, less than and equal to. We thought about how to remember each of the different signs and how to remember which was which. We applied this into various word problems as well.

Spellings and Homework

- Home

PE

We have begun our new topic of 'Fitness.' We were thinking about how to maintain a good pace in order to be able to keep going – slow and steady wins the race! We were therefore able to run for longer and to tire as quickly.

History

This week, we began our new topic of 'Significant People: Nurturing Nurses.' We thought about what makes a person significant and explained why a person is significant to us. We identified significant people from history.

Italian

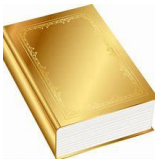
Today, we revised our counting of numbers with our number song. We also started to learn the names of different fruits in Italian, also by singing song to help us remember.

Golden Book

This week, the Golden Book award goes to

Luisa

For always working with a smile on her face and being so proud and self-reflective on the significant progress she has made with her cursive joined handwriting



Computing

This week we begun with our half termly E-Safety lesson. We thought about when and why we need to take breaks from devices and how to find a happy balance between our online and our offline activities. We also considered the feelings of people around us when we are online.

Music

This week in Music we began our new topic of 'Superheroes.' We composed, performed and notated a sequence of sounds to create descriptive music. We thought about how to change the dynamics of sounds to make it more interesting.

RE

This week we completed work on this half term's Catholic Social Teaching topic of 'Preferential Option for the Poor.' We thought about what we can do for those in need and why people give to charity. We also began our new topic of 'Prophecy and Promise.' We recognised the Bible as a special book and also thought about how it tells us the Good News of Jesus.

Art

This week we began our new Art topic of 'Let's Sculpt!' We looked at the work of the sculptor Mar Quinn. We described the unusual materials that he used in his sculptures and named them.

Greater Than or Less Than

Count the superhero-themed objects in each box. Then, draw the correct symbol in the middle box to show which is greater. The first one has been done for you.
