

English

This week the children have been practicing their grammar. They have also began examining the language within their book identifying devices such as personification and expanded nouns.

Art homework

This week the children are to draw an image of a fish in colour. Recording the different colours, they can see in the fish scales.

Science

This week's Science lesson was in commemoration of Sir David Attenborough's 100th birthday. The children went to the park and took part in a scavenger hunt. They had a great time.

Golden Book:

Nana

PSHE

This week the children learnt about being in an online community. They discussed different social networks and online communities. They looked at how they operate and the impact they can have.

Maths

In Maths the children have spent time working on their arithmetic skills. They have also learnt about capacity and been introduced to centilitres. They have learnt how to convert, millilitres to centilitres to litres.

Guided Reading

This week in Guided Reading the children have focussed upon how to answer questions effectively. They have then applied this knowledge to a Persuasive letter text. This has not only helped with confidence and ability it has also cross-curricular links with our new English topic.

Class Books

Spellings and Homework:

Read daily, Atom weekly homework, daily Rockstars.
principal, principle,
stationery,
stationary, profit,
prophet,
complement,
compliment, aloud,
allowed, aisle, isle,
cereal, serial,

foreign.

I recommend having a look at BBC Bitesize, Spelling. There are games to play to help the children practice spelling and revise the spelling rules.

R.E

This week, half of the class visited SPEC strengthening their understand of the Catholic faith along with exploring and building friendships. They all had a wonderful time and were exemplary.

In the classroom, we began our new topic: To The Ends of The Earth. In the first lesson the children learnt how to identify how the Bible speaks about the Holy Spirit being given to the Messiah in both the Old Testament and the Gospels.
