Executive Head Mr Martin Maloney

We have come to the end of another busy and enjoyable week at St Augustine's.

Our Year 6 pupils had a great time on Monday during their Crucial Crew workshop, enjoying themselves while also learning some important lessons about how to keep themselves and others safe.

Today is the International Day of Peace, which gives us a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the importance of peace within our school and wider community. We are always striving to be a peaceful and calm school where everyone feels valued, respected and cared for, and where we live out Jesus' message to love our neighbour.

On Monday, I spoke to the children about forgiveness and how, as Christians, Jesus empowers us to forgive others, even when we find it difficult. Forgiveness is not always easy, but it is an important part of living together peacefully and showing love and compassion towards one another.

I hope you all have a peaceful and restful weekend.
Mr Maloney

In cases where school staff have concerns, they have a statutory duty to discuss the issue with one of the DSPs to seek further advice.
